Dear Donor:

Two non-profit organizations in Boulder Colorado, Colie's Closet and Second Wind Fund of Boulder County, are joining together to host a silent auction fundraising event on May 15, 2011 from 2p-5p at Rembrandt Yard in Boulder Colorado. All of the funds raised from this event will be used to support suicide prevention, raise awareness about depression, and provide free counseling services to youth who are depressed or suicidal.

Both organizations provide services within Boulder County Colorado. Colie's Closet provides suicide prevention and depression peer education to middle school and high school students while Second Wind Fund of Boulder County provides free counseling services to children and adolescents up to the age of 19 who are depressed or suicidal.

We're in the process of collecting merchandise for the event, and I'm writing to request your assistance in making our auction fundraising event a success. By donating an item, you'll be making a tax deductible contribution that will help Colie's Closet and Second Wind Fund of Boulder County continue to educate middle school and high school youth about depression and suicide prevention and provide services to depressed and suicidal youth within Boulder County Colorado.

Additionally, you'll benefit from exposure of your company's name to those who attend the event. Donors will be listed on the event program, and the merchandise you give will be on display through the event. As a donor, you'll be invited to attend the event, so you'll be able to meet prospective customers and even possibly find a few bargains of your own.

Won't you consider donating an item to support the continued work of Colie's Closet and the Second Wind Fund of Boulder County. You may reach me at 720-363-3185 or e-mail me at coliescloset@comcast.net to participate in the Colie's Closet and Second Wind Fund of Boulder County silent auction.

Sincerely,
Melissa Englund
